

Burgwin-Wright House celebrates Earth Day with art show

Written by Allen, Joy

Wednesday, April 20, 2016 03:19 PM

The following article appeared in the Wilmington Star News on Wednesday, April 13.

In honor of Earth Day, the Burgwin-Wright House Museum will mount a nature-themed exhibit for April's Fourth Friday Gallery Night. "A Love of Nature" will feature depictions of flora and fauna from the museum's collection of 18th and 19th century art. In tandem, the museum will present contemporary paintings of flowers and birds by local artist Roslyn Hancock...

Read Complete Article
More News...